MISS ELEANOR COWARD ENGAGED TO J. H. MALLON, WAR VETERAN

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fales Coward Announce Daughter's Engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fales Coward of 64 East Ninetieth street have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eleanor Josephine Fales Coward, to Mr. John Howard Mallon of Cincinnati. The marriage will take place about the middle of June, and after a honeymoon at Ontario, where her parents have a cottage, the couple will make their home in Louisville, Ky., where Mr. Mallon is in business.

Miss Coward came out a few seasons ago and, in addition to the usual activities in the Junior League, has been prominent in the tennis world and on the amateur stage. She has acted a number of times with the Amateur Club, and during the war, in association with her father and others, toured the various neutral camps in a repertoire of one act plays.

Mr. Mallon is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ward Mallon. The father is a well known lawyer of Cincinnati. Mr. Mallon was graduated from Yale in 1916, and served overseas eighteen months as First Lieutenant in the 151st Field Artillery, Rainbow Division.

Miss Coward was awarded last year the Pulitzer prize of $1,500 for his string quartet, later played by the Fionzella quartet.

Mr. Gardner was awarded also the Loeb prize for his tone-poem, "The New Russia," which has been played by the Philadelphia National, St. Louis and Los Angeles orchestras.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Pratt will go to their place at Glen Cove, L. I., to-day to remain until they sail for the international polo matches in England.

Mrs. Vanderbilt will open her house, 1 West Fifty-seventh street, to-day to the Daughters of the Cincinnati, who will enjoy an illustrated lecture followed by tea.
